Who are the Friends?

The Friends of Peabody Memorial Library is a non-profit organization that assists the Library through fundraising activities and volunteerism so that the Library can better reach its goals in serving the community.

Over the past 12 years, the organization has held fundraisers to raise money to provide funds for children's programs, books, magazines, newspapers, and much-needed equipment.

As of July 1, 2018, the Friends have a new Executive Board. A group of amazing women from the area have stepped up and taken positions in order to keep the Friends of the Library going strong!

They are continually looking for new fundraising and promotional ideas as well as enthusiastic members who would like to serve on the Board or to serve on specialized committees.

What do our Friends do?

► Recruit

The Friends are actively seeking new members. Their channels of recruitment include annual mailings, membership meetings, and various functions.

► Advocate

The Friends are a voice for the Library on relevant local issues.

► Fundraise

The Friends' activities generate revenue to supplement the Library's budget, and sponsor public programs with their main focus on children and families.

► Support

The Friends provide grassroots backing for the Library, including, but not limited to, volunteering where needed.

► Engage

As goodwill ambassadors, the Friends spread the word in their communities, stimulating greater awareness of the Library and its resources.
