Who are the Friends?

The Friends of Peabody Memorial Library is a non-profit organization that assists the library through fundraising activities and volunteerism so that the library can better reach its goals in serving the community.

We invite you to learn more about Friends of the Library and welcome you to join us as "Friends" in this worthwhile community effort.

Friends of the Peabody Memorial Library are planning several fundraisers for the benefit of the library. Friends currently fund programs presented by our librarian, Heidi Hinkley, and help greatly in providing funding for books and materials.

Please consider joining the Friends of the Peabody Memorial Library. Our organization benefits every person in our communities by helping the library to grow and improve its services. We are a local organization helping local folks.

What do the Friends do?

- Recruit
The Friends are actively seeking new members. Their channels of recruitment include annual mailings, membership meetings, and various functions.
- Advocate
The Friends are a voice for the Library on relevant local issues.
- Fundraise
The Friends' activities generate revenue to supplement the Library's budget and sponsor public programs with their main focus on children and families.
- Support
The Friends provide grassroots backing for the Library, including, but not limited to, volunteering where needed.
- Engage
As goodwill ambassadors, the Friends spread the word in the communities, stimulating greater awareness of the Library and its resources.

Where do the funds go?

- Sponsor children's library programs
- Purchase books, magazines, & newspapers
- Purchase needed computer equipment
